We're Taking Three Steps Forward, Leaving the Competition Behind.

Sega®/Gremlin® presents three 'firsts' to the coin-operated video games industry.

The world's first color X-Y video display system, COLORBEAM™. Jointly developed by Gremlin® engineers and one of the leading manufacturers of X-Y monitors, ColorBeam combines clear, sharp, crisp color with revolutionary electronics for an achievement second to none.

The first COLORBEAM game SPACE FURY™, incorporates the very finest of today's available technology for the new, exciting game players expect. Suspense-filled game action made possible by ColorBeam's speed, high fidelity voice synthesis with dramatic intonation and ColorBeam's spectrum of color, guarantee Space Fury a winner.

The first MODULAR CARD CAGE and power supply units. These sturdy metal compartments prevent radiation and protect electronic circuitry for longer lasting, more reliable games.

Get in step with Sega/Gremlin and join the winning team.

For more information on ColorBeam and Space Fury contact your local Sega/Gremlin distributor.
